Military Caregiver and Family Resources:

Caregiver Education, Mental Health, and Assistance:

Army OneSource
This site is dedicated to enriching and enhancing the lives of Army Soldiers and their family members.

Care For The Troops
Dedicated to the mental health care of returning troops and their families, this site provides information and training to families, clinicians, and congregation and community leaders, so that they become more aware of the culture, unique symptoms, and issues faced by military caregivers.

Hearts of Valor
Hearts of Valor honors the service and sacrifice of those who care for our nation's wounded, ill or injured warriors by providing a community of support based on a foundation of empathy and mutual understanding. Post 9/11 caregivers receive access to our national in-person peer support groups which address the daily challenges of caregiving. Our annual all-expenses-paid caregiver retreats offer expert coaching and education on current topics. Caregivers also have access to one-on-one support from mental health professionals who can provide up-to-date resources and local referrals.

Military OneSource
Military OneSource is a Department of Defense-funded program providing comprehensive information on every aspect of military life at no cost to active duty, guard and reserve service members, and their families. Information includes deployment, reunion, relationship, grief, spouse employment and education, parenting and child care, and much more.

Military Pathways
To help those who may be struggling, the Department of Defense teamed up with the nonprofit organization, Screening for Mental Health®, to launch Military Pathways (formerly the Mental Health Self-Assessment Program®). The primary goals of the program are to reduce stigma, raise awareness about mental health, and connect those in need to available resources. The self-assessments address depression, post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), generalized anxiety disorder, alcohol use and bipolar disorder. After an individual completes a self-assessment, s/he is provided with referral information including services provided through the Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs.

USO Warrior and Family Care
Through USO Warrior and Family Care programs, the USO is building a continuum of care from the battlefield to the community to provide our wounded, ill and injured troops, and their families and caregivers a broad array of programs to help them throughout each stage of their recovery.
